CITY TRUSTEES

Most of Committee Meeting Behind Closed Doors—Bids Opened for Penn Street Improvement and Sixth Street Sidewalk—Garbage Question

All members present. Bids for improvement of Sixth street opened and declared as follows: F. R. Sinclair, sidewalk 8c; F. S. Evans 8 1/2c.

Bids for Penn street were declared as follows: E. W. Sperry, grading, 40c; oiling and tamping, 2 1/2c; curb, 23c; sidewalk, 8 6-10c. F. R. Sinclair, grading 30c; oiling and tamping, 13c; curb, 22c; sidewalk, 8c. Referred to engineer.

An application for permission to hunt in Verdugo Canon was referred to committee of the whole. A communication was received from Wm. R. Lewis in regard to furnishing fire apparatus; filed. A communication was received from the board of supervisors of the county calling attention to the necessity for taking precautions in regard to the prevention of the spread of infant paralysis. Mr. Coker called the attention of the board to the failure of physicians to report these cases and urged that action be taken to compel the doctors to report to the health department. On motion of Mr. Tower the health officer was instructed to make weekly reports in detail as to cases and also that the doctors be communicated with and the demand made upon them to report promptly all cases known to them as existing in the city. The health officer, Dr. Chase, was telephoned for and appeared before the board in executive session.

A communication was received complaining of the action of the marshal in burning grass on Oak Knoll at the west end of Ninth street. Trustee Coker reported being familiar with the circumstances of the case, and was of the opinion that the damage, if any, was trifling; communication filed. Reports were received from the various departments of the city for July. A petition was received for permission to construct a cement sidewalk on Burchett street, from Wm. Kennett; granted. The owner of a cigar stand at 332 Brand boulevard, appeared before the board to get a ruling as to whether a device for the sale of cigars at his place, is prohibited by ordinance; referred to city attorney to report, which he did later to the effect that the method of sale is not prohibited.

A resolution ordering work done on a portion of Raleigh street was adopted. A long list of demands was read and referred. A resolution ordering work done on Vine street was adopted.

At this point the board took its usual recess (at 8:47 o'clock), going into committee of the whole, to thresh out the infantile paralysis matter with the health officer and do other committee work. At 10:20, the board reassembled. The garbage matter was taken up. Mr. Hall, the garbage collector, stated that work six days a week is necessary to take care of the whole city. A motion passed employing Mr. Hall to collect the city garbage at $5.00 a day.

The question of granting permits to hunt and shoot in Verdugo Canon, was taken up, and a resolution passed granting such permits if hunters at same time had permission from property owners for hunting on their lands.

The Prohibition assembly convention for the Sixty-first assembly district of the state of California will be held on Thursday, August 8, 1912, at 11 a. m., at the Seventh Day Adventist church, corner Third and Isabelle streets, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for member of assembly, to represent such other business as may come before the convention. A temperance lecture in the evening at 7:45 o'clock. You are invited. Come.

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

A goodly number present discussed the subject, "Our State and the Ballot," last Friday, and a good meeting was enjoyed by all present. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. William Burns, superintendent of scientific temperance instruction, who will have charge of the program on the subject of her department. Pledmont Park, near First and Adams streets, is the place. Try and not miss it.

We earnestly believe that generation after generation is becoming more and more poisoned through and through by the fumes of tobacco and liquor, and that the fumes of both are weakening children of such parents, rendering them unable to keep in a normal state of health or to resist disease when it comes their way. As we go in and out of public places, street cars, on the streets, and just have to breathe that tobacco smoke, often in homes, where adults can hardly breathe, we often wonder how babies live at all. Often they sicken and die, and nothing in the world killed them but impure air from parents, and yet you will vote for the party that keeps this evil in existence.

Dr. Powers now proposes to close all Sunday schools of Los Angeles for a month, because of the prevalence of "infantile paralysis." Often in infectious diseases M. D.'s think they will find the cause and prevention through animal experiments. One has said, who is not an M. D., that it would be well for the doctor to look at the tongues and smell the breath of the parents to find the cause.

In the United States last year there were over 89,000 deaths of children under two years of age of people who were users of alcoholic beverages.

In states where the licensed saloons exist the "charity hall" is brought about to provide for the poor, the sick, the hungry. A great thing, requiring $700 or $800 to provide a few loaves of bread to a few that are really helped. But Kansas—poor, benighted Kansas—how some do pity Kansas—has thrown charity to the four winds—to the Kansas cyclones, so to speak. They have hardened their hearts, and in their "inopportune" recklessness voted the saloons out all over the state, and have no paupers, no ignorant, and but few criminals. Fifty counties in the state haven't a pauper, and the county poor farms are rented to the state for experiment stations. Isn't it sad to contemplate? Can't have any charity halls, or charity car parties, or charity theater parties. Charity dead in Kansas. Just think what a nice thing the liquor traffic is. It makes conditions for us so we can have "charity halls," and associated charities, jails, penitentiaries, poorhouses, insane asylums, with nice offices and fat salaries. Isn't it fine? How does it do it? Justice Sidney Reeves makes it all plain. He says: "Ninety per cent of all cases of failure to provide which come to the justice courts of Los Angeles can be traced directly to drink."

In considering candidates for office an important thing to keep in mind is that a man, to be capable of making or executing laws, should first be a man who obeys the law and can govern himself. Candidates for the highest office of the land could not control themselves at the Chicago convention, we remember. If people were as pliant in the voting booth as at prayer meetings we would have no saloons in our land to fight.

There are only two sides to this question. One is right, the other wrong! I want to vote as Jesus would if He were here.

MRS. HATTIE E. GAYLORD, President.

Mrs. G. B. Lindsay of St. Louis arrived in Glendale Tuesday and will spend about a week with her cousins, Mrs. Ross Boyd and Mrs. Ralph Dove. Afterwards they will journey northward.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS.

The scare over this disease seems to be unwarranted by any facts in reference to it that we have been able to secure. Dr. R. E. Chase, Glendale's Health Officer, informs us that there has been but one case within the city limits, although there have been two or three more on the outskirts. He has investigated numerous instances reported to him but found them not to be the disease so greatly feared.

Dr. D. W. Hunt expresses the opinion that there need be no particular alarm in regard to the disease, which by the way, has been known to physicians for thirty five years past. It has not yet been determined that it is a real germ disease and the probability is that it is only a communicable one (by contact) those occurring in this section being sporadic. Only three or four cases have been reported in this section.

Dr. A. L. Bryant has heard of only three cases in this neighborhood and these all comparatively remote from one another. He believes it to be infectious and contagious and recommends that parents keep their children at home where they are in no way exposed to it. He entirely approves of the precautions taken by the health department but there is nothing in the situation to warrant fears of a general epidemic.

OUT-OF-TOWN WEDDING.

The wedding of Frank L. Muhleman of this city and Miss Florence Wright of Los Angeles which took place in that city Sunday morning, was the culmination of a pretty romance which had its inception in a meeting at Catalina Island four years ago, when Miss Wright was spending a vacation at that resort after a course of study at Berkeley, and Mr. Muhleman was taking a brief rest from his legal practice. During the past year the bride was one of the most popular teachers in Whittier.

Rev. S. H. Eneyart of Huntington Park officiated at the ceremony, which was attended by intimate friends of the bride and groom. The bride was beautifully gowned in a white tailored suit with hat and accessories to correspond.

The honeymoon will be spent in the mountains. After September 1st, the happy couple will be at home at 1211 Maple avenue.

SUCCESSFUL CHURCH SOCIAL.

The watermelon social given by the Epworth League last Friday evening was well attended and much enjoyed by all. The program was excellent, every one especially appreciating the beautiful soprano solo rendered by Mrs. Mabel Capell, recently of Glendale, and the fine solo by Mrs. Carl Johnson of Los Angeles sung in her rich contralto tones. A cornet solo was given by Mr. McAdams and Mr. Case favored us with a solo on his French horn. A quartet was sung by Mr. Henderson, Mr. McAdams, George and John Lyons. Readings were given by Mrs. Van Laven and Dr. Moore, both on the humorous order. All responded to encores. The proceeds amounted to over $15.

PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD.

A meeting of this organization was held in the Sunday school room on Tuesday evening last. There was a good attendance. Mr. E. L. Payne and Mr. J. C. Sherer addressed the meeting on the water question, which seems to be the leading subject for thought in the community just now. After listening to the remarks of these gentlemen, and to singing by the Brotherhood Glee Club, Mr. H. L. Howe, chairman of the social committee invited all present to the refreshment table, where the balance of the evening was spent in social conversation.

ATTENTION IOWANS.

The summer outing of the Iowans will take place at Bixby Park, Long Beach, Saturday, September 14, 1912. This has been planned to coincide with the G. A. R. encampment to be held at Long Beach in September.

Cole and Damerell now occupy the room in the block on the west side of Brand boulevard above Broadway, formerly occupied by the Delicatessen establishment. The new firm has a fine, commodious office and expects to secure their share of the real estate business.

NEW ELK'S HALL.

Fine Quarters Being Prepared in Central Block.

Mr. J. W. Lawson has leased the entire upper floor of the new Central building on Broadway near Brand, to the local lodge of Elks, and is having it fitted up in the finest style. On the east side is a hall, 36 by 70, with all ante rooms and other attachments to furnish all accommodations for lodge members. One of the side rooms is fitted up with individual lockers and the sides of the lodge room are to be furnished with upholstered chairs. In the rear on the west end of the building are a billiard room, reading room and kitchen. The lodge is expected to occupy the entire floor with the exception of six office rooms in front. A stairway eight feet wide is an attractive feature of the approach to the hall.

WATER QUESTION UP AGAIN

Discussed at a Chamber of Commerce Meeting—Resolution Adopted Favoring Delay

The meeting called by the Chamber of Commerce last Friday evening to discuss the water question was well attended, the seating capacity of the hall being taxed to its limit. Mr. G. B. Woodberry, city clerk, and for about twenty-five years familiar with water conditions in Verdugo Canon, was the first speaker. Mr. Woodberry is a compendium of information on the subject and for half an hour or so spoke in an interesting manner of the conditions as they exist in the canyon, the supply and quality of the water, etc. He answered many questions.

Mr. H. B. Lynch, who at the request of the trustees has been giving the subject a great deal of study for the past few months and is very familiar with it, spoke at length and also answered questions. Lynch made it very clear that the city does not propose to pay for anything it does not get, nor to allow any fancy valuations to be placed on the properties. In making all estimates of the value of the distributing system he had taken into consideration the length of time the pipes had been in use, and made due calculation for depreciation.

Mr. Willeford, president of the Improvement Association, also spoke. He had learned much from the previous speakers and had the fullest confidence in Mr. Lynch, but at the same time thought that it would be well to have his estimates concurred in by an expert and was in favor of the employment of one. Mr. E. L. Payne read a paper and made some remarks on the subject. He had collected some statistics showing that the Glendale rate of water is high as compared with the service elsewhere. The following are some of the rates given: "The table of minimum rates is as follows: North Pasadena, $1.25; Pasadena, $1; Monrovia, 50 cents; Santa Ana, $1; Los Angeles, 75 cents; San Diego, $1; Alhambra, $1.25; Long Beach, 75 cents; Riverside, 90 cents; Glendale, $1.25; Colton, $1.25; San Dimas, $1; Anaheim, $1; Ontario, $1; Corona, $1.25; Compton, $1.25; Orange, $1.25; Inglewood, $1; Casa Verdugo, $1.50; Whittier, $1.

"The minimum mentioned is for 1000 cubic feet, except in the case of Monrovia, where 600 cubic feet, and Glendale, where 800 cubic feet is given for the minimum. These figures and their comparison indicates the desirability of municipal ownership. We are paying a rate as high as any and are getting inefficient service from private companies, whereas the municipally owned plants are giving satisfaction."

At the conclusion of Mr. Payne's remarks, Mr. J. A. Pirtle offered a resolution as follows: "Resolved, That it is the sense of the meeting that the city trustees do not call an election on the water question until such a time as it may receive a proposition from the City of Los Angeles for Owens River water and get definite figures from the local companies; further that an expert hydraulic engineer be employed to furnish a report on the situation." On a standing vote about sixty favored the resolution, only two or three voting on the other side, although a large number of supporters of the proposition to buy the local water, sat still. At the regular meeting of the Chamber, Friday evening, it is probable that the matter will be brought up again.

METHODIST BASEBALL.

One of the warmest encounters ever pulled off on Verdugo Field occurred last Thursday afternoon when the Fats of the Brotherhood of the First M. E. church played the Leans of the same organization. The Leans had been practicing for years and everything seemed in their favor except avoidability.

H. Woodrow Wilson led the doughty "Fats" and the husky "Leans" were captained by Ed. Lee. Because of the heavy hitting ability of some of the players it was deemed advisable to use an indoor baseball to save time.

It would be interesting to discuss the game by rounds, but space will not permit. It is sufficient to say that there was something doing every minute. Rev. Humphrey and Clyde Bott starred at base running and Dave Froney and Jim McGillis were the home run artists.

The line-up was as follows: Fats: H. A. Wilson, catcher; A. W. Tower, pitcher; J. N. McGillis, first base; T. A. Addison, second base; J. H. Humphrey, third base; J. Peet, shortstop; Paddy Peet, right field; C. H. Bott, center field; D. Francy, left field.

Leans: T. A. Wright, catcher; Ed. Lee, pitcher; L. Wilson, first base; R. Lushy, second base; L. Brockman, third base; W. Livingston, shortstop; J. N. Marsh, right field; W. H. Reynolds, center field; H. L. Kimball, left field.

The battery of the Fats was Wilson and Tower; for the Leans, Wright and Lee. The final score was 22 to 18. After the game the ladies served a bountiful supper under the trees. It is safe to say that it was duly appreciated by the players.

ROBINSON—PHIPPS—SONNTAG CONTEST A LIVELY RACE.

Ed. Phipps, Spencer Robinson and Leon Sonntag fell to boasting the other day about their abilities as athletes. Every one of them had at one time or another distinguished himself in some specialty in the days of his youth, and the years fell away as they talked. Robinson had been a sure-enough star, having been half back and full back and other things in the college team, as well as having shone in the boxing ring as a crack amateur. Finally a bet was arranged for a hundred-yard race on an Everett street track. Fred McIntyre held the watch, and the sprinters flew away at the drop of the hat. The time made was as follows: Phipps, 14 1/2 seconds; Robinson, 16; Sonntag, 12 1/5. Robinson had bet Phipps that the latter could not make the hundred yards in 14 seconds, and the result was that Phipps had to take him to the ball game and set up the ice cream soda.

DEATHS.

Lucy J. Reid, wife of L. A. Jones, of Merced, formerly of Glendale, died at Pacific Grove, July 25. Besides the husband, she leaves a mother, two brothers, one sister and two little children, one an infant a few days old. The body was buried at Pacific Grove. "Thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of even, When it floats among the trees.

"Dearest—thou hast left us, And thy loss we deeply feel, But it is God who hath bereft us, Thou canst all our sorrows heal.

"Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the dream of life is fled, And in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tears are shed."

THE WHITE CITY.

Adventists in Possession of Glendale.

The great white city of the Adventists, numbering something like 400 tents, is the most conspicuous thing in Glendale just now. Every car on the Pacific Electric brings members of the faith out to attend this annual gathering, which in number is the thirteenth, by the way. The pavilion built for the purpose of worship occupies the center of the camp. It is a large canvas structure, conveniently and even attractively arranged, and will seat 2,000 people. The individual tents are fitted up simply, but with all the ordinary requirements of camp life. After the main tent spoken of above, and only second to it in importance, is the boarding tent, where meals are served as in a cafeteria. This sect being vegetarian, its members are not troubled over the high price of meat. Prof. Noah Paulin of Santa Barbara has charge of the music, which will consist of an orchestra and a large chorus. Pastor Spicer of Washington, D. C., will make a report on work in foreign fields. Dr. George H. Thompson of St. Helena will give one or more lectures on health. President Andross is the business head of the conference. Pastor J. O. Corliss, a noted missionary in foreign fields, is on the grounds, and other speakers of note will be heard during the sessions.

STATE OF MAINE DIRECTORY.

The Pine Tree State Association of Los Angeles has undertaken an unique enterprise which will be of interest to all state of Maine people in that it is making a register or directory of former residents of Maine who now reside in Los Angeles county. This directory will contain the names, present addresses and former homes in Maine, and will be published so as to be available to all who desire to consult it. Great pains are being taken to make the register complete, and the cooperation of all Maine people in each locality is invited. Further information may be obtained by addressing the president of the association, Dennis Everts Bowman, 528 Mason Bldg., Fourth and Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. H. R. Strong of Sheldon, Iowa, has been visiting this week Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell of Verdugo road.

GLENDAL, CAL., AUGUST 9, 1912

We note that orange growers are taking steps to protect themselves from frost damage. Isn't this a little unseasonable? Wouldn't an investigation of the ice trust be more appropriate?

Who are to be the fifteen members of the new Charter committee? They will be nominated by petition but their selection can be made by a mass meeting or other organization. Get busy, here's a chance to do politics.

Governor Johnson in the California Outlook presents an argument in favor of the Roosevelt contention as to the California delegates at the Chicago convention, which is neither logical nor conclusive. Included in the argument is a copy of a telegram from President Taft which has no bearing upon the issue, being merely an approval of the list of delegates selected to support him.

We have received notice of the marriage of Miss Florence Wright of Los Angeles to our friend and fellow townsman, Mr. Frank L. Muhleman, on Sunday last. We are sincerely glad whenever a bachelor seeing the error of his ways becomes a benedict, and hope that in Mr. Muhleman's case he may be entering with his bride upon a honeymoon that shall spread all over the years to come, and may they be many.

THE QUESTION OF ASSEMBLY- MAN.

There are now in this Sixty-first Assembly district, three candidates at the coming primary for the Republican nomination. They are W. A. Roberts of Highland Park; R. W. Ready of La Canada and J. C. Sherer of Glendale.
The status of these candidates may be summed up as follows:

Mr. Roberts has the support of Mr.
Lissner and his "hand-picked Committee of Fifteen." Mr. Ready would like to have it, and Mr. Sherer does not want it!

We note the opinion of editor (and attorney) Burch of the Tropico Sentinel to the effect that as "The water of Verdugo Canon belongs to the parties named in the decree making partition of the Rancho San Rafael in 1871, their successors and assigns as an appurtenance to their lands, etc., "the water is therefore "Free Water," but we confess our inability to follow him to this conclusion. Does he mean that either city buying the distributing system would be able to do as it pleased with this water regardless of the wishes of the owners thereof? If so how different would this be from "Confiscation?"

Will Mayor Watson please inform an anxious community why he dared appoint on the water commission two or three oldtimers who really do know something about the water question in Glendale? Does he not know that the community is filled with comparatively newcomers who have never had any knowledge of the subject thrust upon them and are therefore better qualified to form an intelligent opinion?

Why has he not followed the example set by those illustrious gentlemen, the governor of the state and the mayor of Los Angeles, one of whom appointed as world's fair commissioner a temporarily successful politician who knows but little if anything about fairs, while the other placed at the head of the public service commission a gentleman who has performed no conspicuous public service?

We ask to know!

DELAY THE ONLY THING GAINED.

Should the city trustees of Glendale follow the advice given them by the mass meetings that have been held up to date, but one thing will have been gained, and that is delay. Is that the principal thing desired at the present time? It will hardly be denied that a situation exists in a portion of Glendale regarding the water supply which should be remedied and can be remedied and that the only remedy that can be made effectual within a few months is a better use of the local supply. We do not express either favor or disapproval of the proposition which the trustees intend to make to the people in detail, for we do not know yet what it is to be; but we know of no way in which "the people" can so fairly and easily express themselves as at the polls and there can be no logical reason for demanding that the trustees do not give them this opportunity. We are in favor of giving all facts of interest to the public in connection with the subject, but as to the employment of theoretical "experts" we fail to see what service of value they can give in the present instance. The report of Mr. Lynch as to the physical valuation of the properties can be verified by any practical man at plumber's wages—the valuation of the water is a matter of opinion based on valuations given elsewhere and the only place where an expert investigation is required is that which will be furnished by the title company.

A QUESTION OF CONSCIENCE.

"When a political party, in convention assembled, passes a set of resolutions, these are understood to be the platform of the party. Upon this platform all candidates are expected to stand, and to the principles announced all who have the suffrage are summoned to show their loyalty. The political platform is therefore a creed, enforced with sanctions and penalties.
If any one contemns the principles and declines to stand upon the platform he cuts himself off from his party and all political fellowship with those who adhere to it."

The above is copied from a non-political editorial in the Christian Register, where it is made as a simple statement of fact to illustrate a similar condition in church policy.

Here is another quotation:
"A man cannot act both without and within the party; he can do either, but he cannot possibly do both. It is impossible to combine the functions of a guerilla chief with those of a colonel in the regular army."

The above words were spoken by Theodore Roosevelt in 1884 when the mugwump wing of the Republican party came into being.

The primary law of the state of California requires that the voter make an affidavit as to his party affiliation in order to have his vote recorded at the primary election.

And here is another from the leading "Progressive" paper in Los Angeles:

"If you are in favor of Roosevelt's candidate and have registered since January 1, but failed to state a party affiliation, go now to the office of the county clerk and correct your registration by declaring, 'I intend to affiliate at the ensuing primary election with the Republican party.'"

We said nothing—just think!

AN EX-CANDIDATE'S STATEMENT.

In a few brief words I wish through the medium of the press to thank all friends who have so energetically and loyally labored in my behalf as an aspirant for the nomination as a Republican candidate for the assembly of this district.

The elimination of the undersigned still leaves three Republican candidates from which to select the one who will be the next representative from this district and I wish to take this opportunity of reviewing the situation from the viewpoint of one who is familiar with the campaign thus far made.

Our present representative is Mr.
Chas. H. Randall (now a candidate for Congress in the Ninth district), a well known, progressive, yet a man who dared to stand for his judgment of right regardless of the dictation of a boss, and who, because of his introduction of the reapportionment bill against the wishes of certain large cities was politely told that he would not be returned to the legislature.

Some three months ago I was approached to make the fight against Mr.
Randall, but knowing him to be a good Progressive and a faithful representative of this district as against the city dictation and there being no reason assigned, other than his failure to take program, I refused to enter the contest.

Shortly after this Mr. W. A. Roberts was selected by the interests in the city and for him I will say that he is a staunch supporter of Roosevelt for president, and this one feature also is true of Mr. Ready of La Canada, and in addition the latter is not under the influence of the new machine at Los Angeles.

Mr. J. C. Sherer of this city is the third candidate, a resident of Glendale for the last 30 years and a man with a character above reproach, and while I very much regret that I cannot indorse his views on national issues, I still believe that he is the logical man for the place at this particular time owing to the fact that on national issues he will be in such a hopeless minority that no harm will result, while questions of vital importance to this city and valley, such as the Free Holders Charter, Owens River Water Sales, and the Free Holders Charter for the City of Los Angeles, which will affect this territory, etc., will come before the legislature and should be carefully guarded.

To protect the interests of this community against the encroachments of the larger city I am withdrawing because by so doing I avoid the division of the vote and make it possible to select a man by an actual majority of the Republicans of the district.

THE COUNTY CHARTER.

In a communication to the Artesia News, Mr. R. H. Jackson of Long Beach analyzes the County Charter question in an interesting manner.
Alluding to the constitutional amendment which made the charter possible, he says:

"Under the scope of this amendment it is possible to centralize the entire county government within the city of Los Angeles. For instance, the public press announces that the Los Angeles members of the freholders, led by Senator Hewitt (and they are in the majority) desire that the supervisors under the new charter shall be elected at large, rather than by districts. If so drawn it will be possible for the entire board of supervisors to be elected from one block within the city of Los Angeles.

"After this charter has been completed it must be submitted to the people of this county for their approval or disapproval. And right here occurs the most important distinction between the terms of the 'Consolidation act' of 1909, and the adoption of the county charter. Under the 'Consolidation Act' a majority vote in each of the municipalities voting for consolidation was required. To adopt the proposed county charter a majority vote of the county is all that is necessary. In other words, Los Angeles City, with its overwhelming population, may approve and force the adoption of this charter, although every man and woman living outside of the city of Los Angeles should vote in opposition thereto.

"After the adoption of the county charter by the vote of the people there remains but one step necessary before it becomes operative, and that is the ratification by the next session of the California legislature.

"In the selection of members of the next session of the legislature partisan politics will cut little figure in Los Angeles county. The real issue in Los Angeles city is the nomination of candidates who will vote to ratify the county charter, regardless of whether it gives any protection to the rights and privileges of that part of the county outside of Los Angeles city. The REAL ISSUE in the county should be the nomination of none but men who will oppose the ratification of the charter by every lawful means unless the rights of those living in the county are properly safeguarded.

"This is the TRUE REASON why Los Angeles city, and the politicians thereof, acting by and through the 'Committee of Fifteen' have decreed that no man from Long Beach or any other part of the county shall have a seat in either house of the California legislature of 1913, unless they (Los Angeles City) can absolutely control him."

RANDALL A CANDIDATE AGAINST LISSNERISM.

"I propose that we, the three Progressive Republican candidates for congress, shall here and now issue a public statement utterly repudiating any so-called endorsement by Boss Lissner's hand-picked committee of fifteen, and that we now unite to preserve for the people the direct primary law, pure in word and spirit.
That we condemn a return to 'caucus' and 'boss' methods from which California has so recently been emancipated."

This was the ringing proposal made by Charlie Randall of Highland Park, militant anti-boss candidate for congress, at a meeting of Long Beach Progressives, Bell of Pasadena, who has since been endorsed by Lissner's committee, only four of whom are residents of this district, was present and received the proposal in silence.

WEST GLENDALE.

Mrs. H. A. Page of Lawndale was in Glendale Tuesday visiting friends.

Mrs. Olive Baker, who has been in Monrovia for the past two months, has returned to Glendale.

Mrs. James W. Everett of Adams and Lomita avenue, left for Ontario, where she expects to spend about a week with Mr. Everett's sister.

Mrs. Robert Doerges and children of Santa Maria will arrive in a few days to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Glover, 1526 Ivy street.

Little Josephine Boyd has now fully recovered and is ready for play the same as ever. She also enjoys frequent motor rides with her papa, Mr.
Clyde Boyd of the Valley Lumber Co.

After spending the past five months in Glendale, Mrs. H. L. Redd and little daughter, Cleo Helen, sailed Wednesday, July 31st, on the steamer Wilhelmina for their home in Honolulu.

They were accompanied as far as San Francisco by their brother and sister, Mr. Robert and Addie Midcalf, who returned the latter part of the week.

The following was taken from the Evening Express, August 6, 1887: W. L.
Wicks has placed on the market 3800 acres of the well-known Tejuca ranch, 16 miles northwest of Los Angeles. It is offered at $20 an acre.

Another item mentions the fact that the work on the new $60,000 hotel at Glendale is progressing rapidly, and the building has been leased for three years.

The list of teachers for the coming term at the West Glendale school, as printed in some of the Los Angeles papers, was entirely incorrect. There thought, but Miss Sadie Yarnell and Miss Maybelle Douglass will still remain in the West Glendale school instead of the Fourth street school, as stated in the papers. The trustees and teachers of the various schools will meet shortly and final arrangements for the coming term will be made, teachers assigned, etc.

A Troubled Sea and a Troubled Soul.
Mark 14:35-v.20.

Golden Text—God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
Therefore will we not fear though the earth do change and though the mountains be moved in the heart of the sea. Ps. xli:1-2.

(1.) Verse 35—On which side of the sea did Jesus propose to go?

(2.) Verse 36—Does taking Jesus on board insure a calm and safe passage to our journey's end?

(3.) Verse 37—How do you explain that such a great storm could take place while Jesus was on the ship?

(4.) Does God ever change or modify natural laws for the safety or convenience of anybody? Give your reasons.

(5.) Why is it that God permits storm, stress and strain to enter into most of our lives?

(6.) Verse 38—What, if any, danger is there to a ship, and why, if Jesus is on board?

(7.) What right would you say had Jesus to be asleep when the ship and passengers looked to be in such imminent danger?

(8.) Under the circumstances, with Jesus on board, were they wise or unwise, and why, for being afraid?

(9.) No matter what the apparent calamity or danger may be in the life of a child of God, is there ever any need to be afraid? Why?

(10.) Were they right or wrong, and why, to administer this rebuke to Jesus?

(11.) Would you say, or not, and why, that all complaining against God's providences is wrong?

(12.) Verses 39-41—Would it have been better, or not, and why, if the prayer which Jesus answered had never been offered?

(13.) What did Jesus mean by his kind rebuke of their fear?

(14.) Verses 1-7—What reason is there to believe that violent insanity sometimes gives what may be called superhuman strength?

(15.) How did this poor man probably know Jesus?

(16.) Presuming that this man was actually possessed with devils, would it have been possible for him to have known Jesus other than by ordinary human means?

(17.) Verses 8-12—What evidence, if any, is there that some today are possessed with devils, as this man was?

(18.) What is the proof that very wicked and violent men have by coming to Jesus been made gentle and good? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(19.) Verses 13-20—What right had Jesus to be the means of destroying 2,000 swine?

According to the Los Angeles daily papers the "Graham plan" of disposing of the surplus waters of the Owens River aqueduct is gaining adherents rapidly.

Briefly stated, the plan of S. C. Graham, one of the public service commissioners, is the old and simple one of getting "all the traffic will bear." This proposition is not original with Mr.
Graham, at all, but is popularly supposed to have started with the first railroad ever built, and to have been but Mr. Graham is the only public official in Los Angeles who seems to have had sufficient nerve to come out and openly advocate the plan of selling the water only where the most can be gotten out of it without regard to the locality or the merits of the claims of the different ones who need the water.
As a concrete example Mr. Graham says if the water can be sold to orange growers who can pay $30 or $50 an acre a year for it, the city has no right to sell it to growers of corn, for example, who could only afford to pay but $10 or $12. On this theory Commissioner Graham proposes to sell the surplus water at the highest price which will insure the sale of all or most of the supply.

This is fine business from the city's standpoint, maybe. It would be an immense help to the small landholders, too. It would relieve them of the necessity of living in any district where the water was for sale—or of providing their own water supply. For instance: The man with plenty of capital could buy orange land, spend $150 an acre or more in setting out his orange grove, and then buy water of Los Angeles—being able to pay the high prices asked. On the other hand, the small property holder buying an acre or two of land and spending all his capital in building a home, perhaps, would not have money enough to plant his land out to citrus fruits or to wait for returns from them if he did. But if he wanted to raise corn meanwhile, he could not do it because the price of water would be too high to justify using it on such a crop.
The price, of course, must be the same to all users.

That is one way the plan would work out—to discourage the small landholder—the man of moderate means—and encourage the man of wealth to buy up the land in great tracts and farm it by proxy. This is exactly what the people of this valley do not want. They have had too much of this large landholder business and certainly would not want to see it encouraged any further.

All this, however, seems to point more and more to the fact that any section of country that can get its own independent water supply without engaging in entangling alliances with Los Angeles had better do so. There are more complicated questions involved in the distribution of this water than many persons realize.

The latest rumor is to the effect that if any of the surplus water is used for anything but domestic purposes the residents of the Owens River valley, from whence the water is drawn, will immediately start injunction proceedings and tie the matter up, if possible, on the ground that the water was taken for domestic purposes only, and should not be applied to irrigating purposes.

This, of course, would have no effect upon any municipality getting the water, but would—if carried out—make trouble for all irrigators.—San Fernando Press.

San Francisco, July 25.—A campaign for a number of freight traffic reforms that will be a great aid to both the shipper and the railroad, is being worked out by the traffic and claims departments of the Southern Pacific company. "One of the important features of this campaign is to be an attempt to do away with overcharges."
"A railroad would rather spend two dollars to avoid an overcharge, than half that sum in adjusting one," says E. O. McCormick, vice president in charge of traffic. One of the common causes for overcharge claims is the failure of the shipper to properly describe the article on the shipping ticket, and in such cases the bill of lading carries erroneous information.

Claims, in many instances, arise from causes beyond the control of the railroad company, and can be avoided only through the active interest and cooperation of shippers. Another cause for overcharge claims is illegible and poorly written tickets and bills of lading. The use of abbreviations also makes a great deal of trouble. Frequently these alleged overcharges are really undercharges. Proper description of the article shipped is one of the best methods of avoiding overcharges, say the officials.
It means much delay to the shipper when the railroad company has to adjust these, and the company is able to save much of this delay and expense, principally by having the agents and shippers see that proper descriptions and proper addresses are well written or printed on the shipping tickets and bills of lading.

THE PREMIUM FLAG POLE.

San Francisco, July 31.—The huge flag pole presented to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition by the citizens of Astoria, reached this city in one of the gladsome of the Hammond Lumber Company, and has been towed to the Exposition site at Harbor View. It was sent by Mayor Henderson of Astoria, as that city's contribution to the wonderful exposition that is to be held in 1915. The pole was originally intended for the Astoria Centennial celebration, but it was so long and heavy that it was impossible to raise it. The dimensions of the flag pole as given by an expert timber scaler are as follows: "Douglas fir, a perfect piece of timber; base 56 inches, top 23 inches; estimated weight 93,061 pounds. Cubic contents 1953.52 cubic feet, contains 23,515.46 solid lumber feet, length over all 246 feet. The special flag, which is to be flown from this flag pole is to be furnished by the citizens of Astoria. It is planned to hold appropriate ceremonies when the pole is raised and old glory is unfurled from its lofty peak.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION

No. 498.

A RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE CITY OF GLENDAL DECLARING ITS INTENTION TO IMPROVE A POR-TION OF DORAN STREET.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale do resolve as follows:

SECTION 1. That the public interest and convenience require and it is the intention of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, State of California, to order the following street work to be done in said city, to-wit:

First: That that portion of Doran Street from the East line of Central Avenue to the West line of Brand Boulevard and from the East line of Brand Boulevard to the West line of Louise Street, including all intersections of ance with plans and profiles on file in the office of the City Engineer and specifications for the grading and oil-ing of streets on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said specifications being numbered 10, excepting that in addition to said specifications No. 10 there shall be incorporated into the roadway a layer of gravel two and one-half (2½) inches thick in the center twenty (20) feet tapering uniformly to a thickness of one inch at the curb line, of which the maximum pieces will pass through a 2½ inch ring and the minimum pieces will not pass through a ½ inch ring, in the following manner: When the roadway is ready for the final coating of oil as called for in said specifications the gravel as above specified shall then be evenly spread over the entire surface and rolled into said roadway, and then completed as provided for in specifications Number 10.

Second: That a cement curb be constructed along both lines of the roadway of said Doran Street from the East line of Central Avenue to the West line of Brand Boulevard and from the East line of Brand Boulevard to the West line of Louise Street, including returns at all street intersections, excepting along such portions of the roadway of said Doran Street along which a cement curb has already been constructed to the official line and grade, and also excepting that points on the North and South lines of said Doran Street, situated 385 feet West

CHAPTER VII.

A Lieutenant of Volunteers.

I DID not go west immediately after leaving the Pines, as I had intended doing, but remained within the state, hoping vainly to get some word of forgiveness from Miss Ellen. In my calmer moments I reviewed my visit to the Turpins, and the letter which she so condemned seemed to me to be my least offense. Though I understood her resentment and appreciated the position she had taken, I felt, however, that I had made a mistake in obeying her and now wished that I had remained at the Pines and confessed everything to Bud. I believed then, as I do now, that he would have understood me better than Miss Ellen had done and would have pleaded my cause for me, though I doubt whether he or any one else at that time could have shaken her determination not to admit me to her friendship again.

I would wake up each morning resolved to quit the state that day, but before noon I would change my mind, as I seemed utterly incapable of tearing myself from the neighborhood of the Pines. I over looked and longed for some change of feeling which might blunt the edge of my grief, but none came, and my love seemed to grow stronger each succeeding day.

It was maddening to think that I had lost her, and what gave this sorrow a keener edge was the knowledge that I had forever put it out of my power to be of any service to her or to lend assistance to those she loved. I would become a prey at times to the keenest pangs of jealousy. I had no doubt that the squire would renew his suit, and I feared that she might be led in her bitter resentment toward me to accept his hand in marriage. I wrote her several letters begging for her forgiveness and if she could not grant me that to try at least to understand the feelings which had prompted me to write the letters which had been the means of separating us. I told her of the hopeless state of mind into which I had fallen and that I believed that my life would be aimless unless she would touch the magic spring which would set my blood aglow once more and arouse the dormant ambition within me to accomplish something in the world.

I wrote on and on. I exhausted my logic and mental powers to make her understand. I reviewed my visit to the Pines at length, from the moment I had met Colonel Turpin to the last interview I had had with her. My first mistake, I told her, had been in letting my introduction to her and her mother as a relative of the Kentucky Palmers go unchallenged. I explained how I believed myself to have been merely a boarder and the almost fatal mistake I had made in speaking to the colonel on the subject.

Such hospitality I was unaccustomed to, nor do I now fully understand the promptings of that kind old heart when he invited me to the Pines. I told her of my life and of my work; how I had come into her section with the bitterest feelings against it. My one ambition, I told her, was to arouse a hostile sentiment in New England against the political party then in power in nearly all the southern states. I did not conceal from her the satisfaction I had felt when this assignment had been given me nor my disappointment when I learned afterward that I was not to touch on politics in my letters. I told her of my resolution to leave the Pines on the day after I had arrived, but how that resolve melted as snow before the sun when I had seen her and looked into her eyes; how step by step she had led me to look upon life with a broader and a kinder view and had brought me finally to a full understanding of her section and her people, and how she had made me know for the first time what my father meant when he was wont to say that all the two great sections of the country needed was to get acquainted.

The letter which had so offended her, I said, would be the means of bringing thousands of persons to a proper appreciation of her home land and the southern character, just as the facts embodied in it had caused me to change the opinions I had held once. I did not believe my offense was past forgiveness, and I begged her that in a spirit of fairness she would try to appreciate the impulses of one whose instincts seemed to be to write of things as they are and whose training had led him always to seek out those things to describe which were novel and of interest. I followed this letter with another, but with no better result. I wearied the postal officials with questions and got them to go through the general delivery a half dozen times a day.

I do not know how it would have ended had the thought not come to me, as if by inspiration, that I could at least be of some small service to her, yet keep my identity in the background. After waiting in Augusta one more week in anxious hope that each day might bring a letter from her I took the train for Atlanta and there began a search for the holders of the mortgage on the Pines. With good references I presented myself at the office of one of the large trust companies and authorized its agents to trace the mortgage and to secure it at any cost. After weeks of incessant work we traced the holders somewhere in the southern part of the state, and an agent of the company was dispatched there to take up the mortgage. The utmost caution was necessary to secure the consent of Bud without exciting his suspicion. The holders of the paper were instructed to say that they had to sell and that they had found a company whose business it was to lend money willing to accept it. Nothing was said about reducing the interest. It was not until the transfer had been accomplished that it was made known to Bud that the company had reduced the interest from 6 to 4 per cent.

I had followed the transaction with the keenest interest, and the officials, who were in my confidence, became as interested almost as I. I told them that under no circumstances were the Turpins to know anything about me; that everything must be done through them. They understood the necessity of secrecy, as I told them that the beneficiaries of this act would reject it and force a foreclosure had they any reason to suspect that the interest had been reduced through any desire to assist them in any way. Satisfied that I had done something for Miss Ellen, I determined to leave for the west.

It was while going to take my train that a circumstance occurred that delayed my departure for several days more. I was late and was hurrying through the depot when I ran fairly in the arms of Bud. I did not recognize him at first, and it was only when I stepped back with a conventional apology that I saw the strong outlines of his face and knew it to be that of Miss Ellen's brother. It was only a momentary glimpse I had of him, but he looked older and more careworn, it seemed to me. He seemed preoccupied and did not recognize me, for, lowering my face, I hurried past him and reached the waiting room. I abandoned all intention of taking the train that day, for I at once suspected that my secret had become known and that Bud had come to Atlanta with the determination of either having the transfer revoked or else forcing me to accept the former interest on the mortgage. By a circuitous route I reached my hotel and, sending for a messenger, dispatched a note at once to the company informing the officials of the arrival of Mr. Turpin.

The next day I learned that Bud, thinking the transaction somewhat queer, had come to Atlanta to see about it himself, and I strongly believed that Miss Ellen had urged him to it to satisfy herself that I was in no way connected with the benefit which those at the Pines would derive from the reduction of the interest. Bud demanded to know to whom his family was indebted for this unlooked for piece of generosity. My agent told him that these mortgages had become very valuable and that his company had been authorized to secure as many of them as possible and to reduce the interest on them to 4 per cent. Satisfied that the matter was a business transaction, Bud left for the Pines again and I had reason to believe, with a lighter heart.

Lost in the background and congratulating myself on the success of my scheme, I wandered into the west. The face of Ellen was ever before me. Night and day the picture of her, clad in a simple gingham frock, her sleeves rolled up and her hand pointing in the direction of the old memorial bridge, was ever in my mind. Several times I tried to resume my writing, but my pen seemed to drop from my fingers or else my mind refused to respond to my will. In dejection of spirit my head would fall over on my arm, and I would sit for hours dreaming of the Pines and Miss Ellen. In my apathy I journeyed to Japan, and for awhile life seemed brighter in that mosaic looking country, but go where I would, there was ever recurring to my thoughts the picture of Miss Ellen, and my heart would swell and tears rush unbidden to my eyes as I remembered our parting. There was talk of war between my country and Spain, but this interested me little. I seemed to have lost my sense of the proportion of things. Resolved at last to take up the thread of my life again and begin anew, I started for the States. Almost the first thing I learned on reaching the Pacific slope was the fact that war had been declared. The will of an indignant people had swept aside politics and diplomacy and had surged with such force about the nation's rulers that no one dared stand in its path.

The martial spirit of my ancestors had never burned within me, for my mind had always been set in other directions, and my pursuits were those of peace. Never hesitating for a moment, however, I started across the continent. By telegraph and letters I collected my scattered influences and, backed by my delegation in congress, asked the governor of my state for a commission. It was secured without much trouble, and I was mustered in the service as a first lieutenant of volunteers in one of the regiments from Massachusetts.

A Mother's Answer.

When Earl Ferrars had been convicted of murder great efforts were made to obtain a pardon on the ground that he was insane. His mother being appealed to and requested to write a strong letter on the subject, answered, "Well, but if I do how am I to marry off my daughters?"—Green Bag.

Headstrong.

Mrs. Homer—Don't you thing your husband is rather headstrong for an invalid? Mrs. Neighbor—Yes, and the doctor is to blame for it too. Mrs. Homer—Indeed! And why, pray? Mrs. Neighbor—He won't allow him to take any nourishment but goat's milk.

She Quotes an Authority.

Elsie—When I grow up, mamma, I'm going to be extravagant like you. Mamma—What makes you think I'm extravagant? Elsie—Well, I'm sure I've heard papa say so lots of times.

How She Caught Him.

"What would you do if you caught your husband dining?"
"Why, my dear, that's just the way I did catch him!"

Petitions for and against the granting of a restaurant liquor license in this city have been circulated during the past few days, and it is claimed, have been signed by quite a number of local residents. It is understood that the heads of the various churches here, with the exception of the Brethren church, which was not approached, would have nothing to do with the circulating of the petition in denunciation of the "booze" establishment.

A young fellow by the name of Van Slyck was arrested Sunday morning by Marshal Gould of this city, the arrest taking place at Victorville, San Bernardino county. Van Slyck is charged with robbing the Tropico post office some time last December and will be tried for that offense. He is now in the detention home in Los Angeles awaiting a trial before Judge Whittier in Los Angeles. It is believed that Van Slyck was a member of the gang of youthful crooks who were operating in Tropico around the time when the Tropico post office was entered.

J. W. Gould, marshal of this city, has issued the following notice: "In accordance with Section 7, Ordinance 24, the board of trustees of the city of Tropico hereby orders that all dogs within the city limits of the city of Tropico shall be prohibited from running at large on any street, lane, alley or other public place in such city, unless securely muzzled or led by a chain or line, so as to effectually prevent them from biting a person or animal. It shall be the duty of the city marshal, after twenty-four hours after the publishing of this order, to kill all dogs found unmuzzled or running at large contrary to this order."

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Smith and son, Seymour, of Central Avenue, will leave Saturday evening for San Jose and the bay cities, to be gone about two weeks. Mr. Smith is associated with Mr. Gallop in the Tropico Mercantile company and while in the North will attend to his business interests. Mr. Smith has been a resident of this place for thirteen months, at which time he came to associate himself with the Tropico Mercantile company, which during the past year has experienced unusual success, which has been made by the excellent management of Mr. Smith.

It is San Jacinto's Turn Now

You have seen valleys, and heard of valleys, but unless you have seen our beautiful San Jacinto Valley you can't have but little conception what a real valley is like. It is more than a "level strip of land between hills." It is eighteen thousand acres level as a floor, surrounded by beautiful mountains, and every acre under cultivation, beautiful ranches and orchards of every kind, fine alfalfa farms, great potato fields, in fact most everything that will grow in any country can be grown here to better advantage.

All we want now is a few more good, neighborly settlers to join us in an expansion that we are proud to be able to make, and doubly proud to know that the highest priced acre offered in the valley at this time would still be a bargain at twice the price asked. Heretofore we have had population enough, because of the scarcity of water, but conditions have changed since the great water discovery made recently. We now have more water than we have land, and not quite as many settlers as either, so come right
